

Welcome to Sue's Bluebells

Written by Administrator
Thursday, 30 July 2009 13:00

We have been firmly established as one of the main suppliers of high quality fresh flowers and associated products to the Private and Business sectors in Darwen with Blackburn, Lancashire and the surrounding area for over ten years. We pride ourselves on our excellent and friendly service.

All our flowers are carefully selected and of the highest quality. We deliver to a wide area in the North West from our base located in Darwen. We cater for every aspect of floristry from traditional, contemporary, wedding, funeral, births and gifts bouquets and arrangements

Please browse our website to find some very attractive flowers and arrangements at very attractive prices, and join our growing client base. If you don't see what you after please just ask and we will do our utmost to meet your demands.

Why not enhance your business premises, offices, shop, boardroom or showroom with fresh, dried or silk flowers throughout the year to show your customers that you care.

If you have an up and coming event or wedding and would like to book an appointment to speak with one of our experts please either email or call to book an appointment.